HAYDN in ESTERHÁZY ~ Genial Kapellmeister

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Central Park West at 68th Street
Saturday, March 3rd at 7:30 pm

Maestro Renz devotes an entire evening to a single composer: the beloved and endlessly inventive "Papa" Haydn. With his unique combination of genius and geniality, Haydn developed some of the freshest, most original classical symphonies of his time, from the stormy to the sublime, while in service at the remote Esterházy estate in Hungary.

MONTEVERDI ECHOES ~ Venice to Vienna

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Saturday, May 5th at 7:30 pm

The 'new' Italian style of Monteverdi and his contemporaries, blossoming at the turn of the 17th century, quickly made its way across the Alps, as Italians were engaged by Austrian and German courts. In addition to Monteverdi, composers will include Carlo Farina, whose Capriccio stravagante features a veritable carnival of the animals.
